It was further ordered that the polls, at the at sunset.

All candidates desiring to submit their claims to the primary election were requested to meet the committee at the Sun engine house next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and make arrangoments for the primary election, the ex-pense of the same to be paid by the candidates The meeting then a ijourned.

The Republican Executive Committee also met last night, with Edward Hughes in the chair and Wur. Miller, Secretary.

It was ordered that Ward meetings be held on the 18th inst. to elect delegates to a convention to nominate city officers, the convention to meet on the 21st instant, at noon, in Harmonie It is understood that there is a strong feeling among the members of the party in favor of making "straight out" nominations.

FIRE AT KINSALE. - On Monday night last the store of Mr. Norris, at Kinsale, Westmoreland county, and the dwelling house of Mr. Mayboth entirely destroyed. Mr. Norris who was sleeping in his store barely escaped with his ant organ by taking Simmons' Liver Regulathe flames. Hugh Middleton, a suspicious flesh is heir to. character in the neighborhood, has been arrested, and goods taken from another store which was recently robbed were found in his house. - Tappahannock Index.

A geotleman, who arrived here this morning from Kinsale, states that the evidence against Middleton is very strong; the prims found in the mud around the building fitting his shoes exactly, even to the patches thereon. He has been sent on for court. Middleton's brother was also arrested, but, as no evidence was adduced against him, he was discharged. The stock of Mr. Norris was insured for $500, but acither the building in which he kept, belong ing to Mr. John Gemeny, por that of Mr. May pard were insured. There have been four fires within three weeks in the same neighborhood.

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE. - George Stearus, a young man apparently about twenty two years of age, was brought before the Mayor this morning on the charge of entering the room of Mrs. Mary Upton, at the lower end of Wolfe decree for the partition in kind or sale of the street, with intent to commit an outrage. Mrs. real estate in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, Mrs. Mary Upton, at the lower end of Wolfe Upton testified that she was awakened this morning, about 1 o'clock, by some one moving about in her room. Supposing it to be one of her children she called out, and was immediately grasped by the throat by the intruder. The children raised such an uproar, however, that the man was frightened from his purpose and left the room. This morning Stearns' shoes were found beside Mrs. Upton's bed. The accused says that he went home druck and mistock the room for his mother's, which is in the same house, and that immediately upon discovering his error he left. The Mayor committed him to jail for further examination.

times during the past year. Capt. Eli Petty has had sent him a living anaconda from Central America. The Captain has killed the reptile and preserved him in alcohol. The snake is of a dark color, with bright red rings, and is quite handsome. The new enclosure for the Washington-street side of Christ Church yard has been completed and presents a substantial and appropriate ap-

MURDER IN PRINCE GEORGE'S .- On Tuesday night last a colored man named George Edelen, who lives near Tent Landing fishing shore, a short distance below Fort Washington, heard a noise in his yard, and, on going out, was shot at by some unknown party, the ball fortunately missing him. Edelen immediately ran into his house and barred the door. A few minutes afterwards a shot was fired through an opening in the wall, which struck a child of Edelen's, aged about three years, passing through its body and inflicting a wound from which it died on Wednesday. The murderer fled, but suspicion attaches to a white man in Sold by druggists. 25 cents per bottle. the neighborhood with whom Edelen had had some difficulty, and whom he had arrested on a It was resolved to hold a primary election on charge of trespass.
